----- When was the first Skyscraper Built? -----

The world's first skyscraper, built in 1885, was the Home Insurance Building in Chicago, Illinois, which stood at 42 meters or 138 feet and was 10 storeys.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF INSIGNIA

The referral program at CNTC India Projects. Unlike normal referral programs, we understand what drives our patrons? What is important to them and what is not.

Sometime money is not a motivator, and that's exactly is the case with our upscale buyers. Hence, we went ahead and devised a referral plan which gives our buyers an experience of a lifetime along with a substantial amount of cash if we convert their referrals into sales.
